Good Afternoon,

10 January 2024 (Fairfax, VA): The Community Foundation for Northern Virginia's annual discretionary Community Investment Funds, Environment Fund, and Ross-Roberts Fund for the Arts grant have opened as of today, January 10, 2024. Last year, we awarded $763,969 to 44 organizations. Funds are invested in organizations serving the Northern Virginia community in the areas of aging, the arts, child and youth development, education, the environment, intellectual and developmental disabilities, Latino engagement and achievement, mental health, military personnel and their families, and safety net support. Applications are due on February 7, 2024. Organizations can learn more and apply here.

We hosted an informational webinar earlier today, and you can view the recording here. Visit this page for an FAQ. You can view the slides shared here.

The Community Foundation for Northern Virginia manages 35 scholarship funds that support Northern Virginia students pursuing undergraduate and graduate degrees. Last year we awarded $551,650 to 142 students. Those interested can learn more about the scholarships and apply here.

About the Community Foundation for Northern Virginia

Founded in 1978, the Community Foundation has been the premier charitable partner trusted by thousands of generous Northern Virginians for decades. Our mission is to advance equity through philanthropy and community leadership. Comprised of donor advised funds, permanent funds, giving circles, and other charitable endowments, the Community Foundation's vision is to build a community that works for everyone. Our Community Foundation serves the entire region, including Arlington, Fairfax, Loudoun and Prince William Counties and the Cities of Alexandria, Fairfax, Falls Church, Manassas and Manassas Park.
